

Glasgow Main Street Association

Glasgow Main Street Association

June 14, 2022

Lewis & Clark Building

Nikki Gouge called the meeting to order. Kimberly Reckner moved to approve the May minutes with a second by Cheryl Adams. Motion approved..

No treasurer's report.

Open Issues

Kimberly Reckner reported on digital issues. The website contract will have a $500 annual fee with a three year contract plus $33.98 domain fee. Cheryl Adams moved to approve the contract with a second by Lydia Wagy. Motion carried.

Tourism grant discussion with an approval via e-mail for the $1,000 additional cost for supplies. Pictures need to be submitted each month of progress on the project.

Banners were discussed. Picture of bridge to be put on banners. Need to get 20 banners with vinyl costing $65 each.

Economic report data being collected. Everyone needs to turn in volunteer hours.

Kimberly Reckner moved to make the bylaws change dealing with electronic communication with a second by Lydia Wagy. Motion approved.

Planters currently look good so no action on additional plantings.No updates on downtown lighting.

Tara Davis and Devyn Monnig Johnson (Via zoom) updated us on the zine with a map of downtown Glasgow highlighting buildings. 500 copies (8.5" x 11") print and digital would cost from $850 (10 pg) to $1360 (16 pg) plus $4.20 to fold per 500 brochures. Suggestions of color and fonts were given.

Discussion was held on whether anyone could attend the Missouri Main Street State Meeting on August 3-5, 2022. No one was able to attend.

Tentative profit on Piccadilly was $5,367.97.

New Business

Discussion was held on whether to get a dedicated phone number (Google Voice) with a cost of $9.99 per month. Also on whether to get a debit card. No action taken on dedicated phone number. Lydia Wagy moved with a second by Kimberly Reckner to get a debit card in the name of treasurer, Diana Clarke. Motion approved.

Lydia Wagy moved to adjourn with a second by Kimberly Reckner. Motion Carried. The next meeting will be determined later due to conflicts on normal meeting date.

Glasgow Main Street Association

Members in attendance: Nikki Gouge, Cheryl Adams, Kimberly Reckner, Brenda Uthlaut, Lydia Wagy, Tara Davis, Diana Clarke